Old Rickhouse RYE WHISKEY

OUR SIGNATURE RYE

Starlight Distillery's Old Rickhouse Rye Whiskey is a blend of our two signature rye mash bills (100% sweet mash fermentation) that is named after the rickhouses located on the Knobstone Escarpment in a small southern Indiana town called Starlight. Our Old Rickhouse rye whiskey is a blend of 4–6-year-old whiskies that pays tribute to these rickhouses.

This 92-proof Indiana straight rye whiskey is crafted with rye grown on the 700+ acre Huber estate and is then aged in new, American white oak barrels sourced from up to seven different cooperages throughout the United States.

The result is a sustainably crafted small batch rye whiskey that is smooth, full of flavor, and displays hints of sweet caramel and vanilla. Old Rickhouse rye's classic spice notes shine through and pairs perfectly neat, on the rocks, or in extraordinary craft cocktails.
